Each course is offered in blended mode: 10% contact time (virtual contact sessions) with the rest of the course offered online over approximately five months. Each course is worth 20 credit points at HEQF level 8, which equates to approximately 200 learning hours.

Two Short Learning Programmes (SLPs) are offered per semester. Please consider your workload before deciding how many SLPs to apply and register for.

Tick the box next to the name/s of the SLP/SLPs for which you would like to apply for:

Semester ONE		Semester TWO
PROGRAMME	TICK HERE TO SELECT	PROGRAMME	TICK HERE TO SELECT
Supervision of Qualitative Research Design (S5SQRQ)		Academic Literacies in Research Supervision (S5ALRQ)
Research Ethics in Postgraduate Supervision (S5RETQ)		Postgraduate Research Supervision (S5PRSQ)

Prerequisite for application and registration: Because of the focus of the course, participants need a minimum of a Master's degree to register. Ideally, participants should be supervising student research. In addition, the approval of the UJ participants HOD is required.

Documents required for application and registration:

- Certified ID or passport copy
- Certified copy of highest qualification
- An up to date CV which includes your Name, ID/passport number, email, cell phone number, qualifications, work experience and current work status.

You will be required to submit the above documents on the UJ online web application system when you apply for the course/courses you choose.

Cost: The courses are free for UJ staff and Post-doctoral fellows in 2021. Each course costs R5910 for external delegates. However, should a participant register and subsequently drop out, an administration fee of R1000 can be charged against their Department.
